Business Development Manager

„Free of Chick Culling" is the promise that respeggt makes. We work on this mission in our office locations in Cologne (DE) and Ede (NL) as well as in our partner hatcheries. Thanks to our innovative technology, we identify the gender of hatching eggs and verify the supply chain. Once everything is checked and done, packages of consumption eggs and egg products are allowed to show the respeggt heart label "Free of Chick Culling".

We are an international, highly motivated team with talents in Agriculture, Economics, Technology, Marketing and IT, with a common passion to feed the world population in a sustainable way.

Your tasks with us:

- ✔ Set up and manage partnership structures in Germany and the Netherlands (Sales is done by our partner hatcheries)
- ✔ Being the primary contact for rearing/laying hen farms, packing centers, egg processors and self selling farmers
- ✔ Create awareness for „Free of Chick Culling" and respeggt
- ✔ Select, organize and participate on relevant trade shows and events

This convinces us:

- ✔ Your personality: communicative skills and team spirit
- ✔ You are naturally empathic, friendly and competent
- ✔ Experienced in a commercial environment, preferably in poultry
- ✔ Agriculture background
- ✔ Enjoying the international environment
- ✔ Willingness to travel for meeting our partners
- ✔ Language knowledge: DE + NL (EN)

We offer:

- ✔ Full time employment in a responsible job (unlimited contract)
- ✔ Office locations in Cologne and Ede
- ✔ Highly motivated and dynamic team
- ✔ Simple hierarchical structure, fast decision making
- ✔ Flexible working hours and home office options
- ✔ Creativity and self-development are appreciated
- ✔ Attractive employee benefit package including an own company car
- ✔ 30 days of vacation to recharge your battery

Please send us your complete application documents with details of your salary expectations and availability to Kristin Höller at job@respeggt.com.

We look forward to hearing from you!
