

Are you looking for new challenges with heart and mind?

We need your support as

Supply Chain Associate (Full-Time)

"Free of Chick Culling" is the promise of Respeggt GmbH, based in Cologne, Germany and De Klomp, the Netherlands.

We help the egg sector to put an end to chick culling with our solution of in-ovo sexing. We set the framework for the "Free of Chick Culling" guarantee and certify the "Free of Chick Culling" Respeggt label. We are an international, highly motivated team with a wide range of expertise in the fields of agriculture, business management and commercialisation, working with a wealth of experience in the poultry industry and strong partners to put an end to the culling of male chicks.

Your role with us:

- ✓ You are right in the middle of it: Support the Respeggt partners along the entire Supply Chain (from hatching egg to consumer egg in the supermarket) in the processes to secure the Respeggt promise "Free of Chick Culling", mainly as a contact person for livestock farmers as well as hatcheries, packing centers and food producers
- ✓ Coordination of the Respeggt representatives in our partner hatcheries
- ✓ You check, analyse and evaluate the documents and data in Supply Chain Verification
- ✓ You maintain all supply chain information in the Supply Chain Monitoring System
- ✓ You contribute to the further development of the Respeggt system with innovative ideas and a global vision

What we are looking for:

- ✓ University of applied sciences degree in agricultural sciences/food sciences or a comparable qualification
- ✓ Understanding large amounts of data and their correlations is no problem for you
- ✓ You feel at home in the digital world and are a professional in using MS Office, especially Excel
- ✓ Fluent in English and/or German (Dutch is an advantage)
- ✓ You are characterized by a conscientious and responsible way of working
- ✓ Finally, you describe yourself as a team player with strong communication skills
- ✓ Willingness to travel required
- ✓ Driving license required

What we offer:

- ✓ Meaningful activity
- ✓ Flexible working hours
- ✓ Attractive salary
- ✓ Collegial and international working atmosphere
- ✓ Responsibility in your area
- ✓ Operational freedom

Please send us your complete application documents with details of your salary expectations and availability to Maribe Lehmkuhler at job@respeggt.com.

We look forward to hearing from you!
